WALLA WALLA, Wash. — State prisoner inmates were rewarded with a banquet because no one tried to break out for a year. Ten days later guards found a nearly completed tunnel under the wall.

EVERYBODY HAS PROBLEMS these days, but to pretty Mary Macon, shown with a firm grip on her new Canadian National Railways gift certificate, none as enjoyable or important as where to go for a vacation. Helping Mary choose a trip from a map of North America is her equally pretty chum, Joan Snyder. The gift certificate for rail travel anywhere was designed and introduced by the C.N.R. and is available at ticket offices across the system. Senders may also have the certificate cover sleeping accommodation and meals on trains and include pocket money as well as railway fare. They are readily exchangeable at ticket offices as full or part payment for rail travel anywhere.

Father's Day 1952

Forty-two years ago Mrs. John Bruce Dood was the driving force in starting Americans to celebrate Father's Day. Since 1910 the third Sunday in June has been observed as Father's Day, although it is not usually declared a legal holiday. This year Father's Day comes on the 15th of June.

Each year on Father's Day, emphasis is placed on a closer father-child relation as a means of building a better world. In the average family in Edmonton or any other community in Canada the father is away from the home during the major portion of the day. Children do not have an opportunity to become as well acquainted with their father as they do with their mother.

All of us realize how important it is to the proper development of a child to have the sympathetic guidance of "Dad." Too often fathers, weighed down with the responsibility of making a living, fail to devote enough of those precious moments to the youngsters.

The important role that a father plays in moulding the character of his children has been recognized through the ages. Aristotle wrote, "From good parents comes a good son."

"One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters."—George Herbert.

"Character is largely caught, and the father and the home should be the great sources of character infection."—Frank H. Chaley.

End of Newspaper Monopoly in Sight?

It seems as if Edmonton's daily newspaper monopoly is not going to last forever. At present rumors are current of a large Toronto daily having looked over the field with a view to publishing a second daily in this city. What truth there is in the report is not clear yet, but it is reported that a large business block in the centre of the city has been purchased by the Toronto firm.

Developments have not gone beyond this stage yet, but it is not likely that a large newspaper firm has bought a business block in the city for warehouse purposes. There has been a strong feeling in the public mind that a city of 165,000 should not be dependent on a single medium of news service in the daily field. This feeling is growing as time passes and the city of Edmonton spreads out further and further under the pressure of rapidly growing population.

One of the 165,000 Edmonton people who did not buy out the old Edmonton Bulletin, according to his own statement, is Walter MacDonald, Publisher of the Journal. Mr. MacDonald has just come home from a number of meetings in Toronto. Walter probably knows more about the newspaper situation than anyone else but, like the daisies, he won't tell.

Let Them Pick Their Own

Vives

(From the Calgary Albertan)

The defence department in Ottawa should do something about the bigotry and prejudice that apparently prevail in the Canadian army headquarters in Japan.

A young Alberta man, the first from these parts to enlist for the Korean war, married a fine, upstanding Japanese girl, with the approval of his family. But it seems the army authorities won't recognize the marriage and the girl cannot come to Canada. So, although he was due for repatriation a long while ago and has a most distinguished military record, he is still there. He won't leave his wife.

Canadian soldiers are mature enough to pick their own wives. If this girl is good enough for the man and his family and if he is good enough for her and her family, her race or color should be of no concern to the Canadian army. Where's the freedom these fellows are supposed to be fighting for?

Mother Shipton's Poem

By T. W. PUE

Over 200 years ago, a woman reputed to be a witch, wrote a poem with her self-acclaimed powers of prophecy, she set out to foretell the future, and specifically mentioned one date—1936.

She said in her poem, written over two centuries ago, that "then shall mighty wars be planned and fire and sword shall sweep the land." This has since been only too true.

T. W. Pue

Think of the annihilation of Poland, the invasion of Finland, with its white-robed ski troops in the forests, the invasion of Norway, with troops hidden in mountain forests when you read about people who "flee to the mountains and the dens, the bog and forest and wild fens."

The reader might also recall the utterances by world statesmen on war aims and reconstruction of society after the war as he reaches the end of the poem where Mother Shipton concludes with "old worlds shall die and new be born."

MOTHER SHIPTON'S POEM

A carriage without a horse shall go,
Disaster fill the world with woe.
In London Primrose Hill shall be;
Its centre hold a Bishop's See.
Around the world men's thoughts shall fly
Quick as the twinkling of an eye.
And waters shall great wonders do:
How strange, and yet it shall come true:
Thro' Towring hills proud men shall rise
No horse nor ass move by his side.
Three times the water men shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall even talk;
And in the air men shall be seen,
In white, in black, as well as green.

A great man then shall come and go
For prophesy declares it so.
In water iron then shall float
As easy as a wooden boat;
Gold shall be found in stream or stone,
In land that is as yet unknown.
Water and fire shall wonder do,
And England shall admit a Jew,
The Jew that once was held in scorn.
A home of glass shall come to pass
In England—but alas alas!
A war shall follow with the work
Where dwells the pagan and the Turk.

Th' States will lock in fiercest strife
And seek to take each other's life.
When north shall thus divide the south
The eagle build in lion's mouth.
Then tax and blood and cruel war
Shall come to every humble door.
Three times shall all the world be France,
Be led to play a bloody dance.
Before the people shall be free,
Three tyrant rulers shall see;
Three rulers, in succession, be—
Each sprung from different dynasty.

Then, when the fiercest fight is done,
England and France shall be one.
The British olive then shall twine
In marriage with the German vine.
Men walk beneath and over streams—
All England's sons shall pick the land Shall oft be seen with bow in hand.
The poor shall soon most wondrous know,
And water, wind where corn doth grow,
Great houses stand with far-flung vale,
All covered o'er with snow and hail.

And now a word in uncouth rhyme
Of what shall be in future time.
For, in those wondrous far off days,
The women shall adopt a craze
To dress like men and trousers wear,
And cut off all their locks of hair.
They'll ride astride with breech bow,
As witches do on broomsticks now.
Then love shall die and marriage cease,
And nations waste as babes decrease,
And vices shall fondle cats and dogs,
And men live much the same as dogs.

In nineteen hundred and thirty-six,
Build houses light with straw and sticks.
For then shall mighty wars be planned,
And fire and sword shall sweep the land.
But those who live the century through
In fear and trembling this shall do:
Flee to the mountains and the dens,
To bog and forest and wild fens—
For storms shall rage and oceans roar
(When Gabriel stands on sea and shore)
And when he blows his wondrous horn,
Old worlds shall die and new be born.

JUNE 1952 LIVESTOCK SURVEY

How many livestock are there in Canada? How many of these are dairy and how many are beef animals? What is the acreage seeded to grains in Canada in 1952? How much of this acreage is seeded to wheat and to feed grains? These and a host of other questions can be answered by asking the farmers of Canada.

Therefore, each year at this time, the Bureau of Statistics in co-operation with the provinces distribute questionnaires to farmers throughout Canada so that every farmer may have the chance to supply information about acreage and livestock on his own farm.

The June crops and livestock survey is a voluntary one. Many farmers supply information every year and this year again all farmers are urged to co-operate in the survey. The object is to get a large number of completed reports back to the statistical offices as soon after June 1 as possible.

The individual reports will then be grouped together and estimates of acreages and livestock numbers will be made for each province across Canada. The 1952 estimates will be related to the census figures of June 1, 1951 and it will be important to know what changes have occurred since then.

The statistics obtained from the June Survey are an essential part of agricultural statistics in Canada. They form the basis for the crop production estimates and on the year and the livestock numbers are used to determine meat consumption in Canada and supplies available for export. Government bodies, farm organizations, industry and international organizations such as the Food and Agriculture Organization use the figures extensively.

All schedules returned by farmers are kept strictly confidential. The individual forms are seen only by employees in federal and provincial statistical offices.

Voice of the People

WHEN CHILDREN SUFFER WHY TEACH?

I say to the judges who try cases such as that recent one in New York, where a savage beast of a mother beat her child severely with an Army belt as her husband just stood beside her: there is only one way to do justice to such soundings. Tie up such so-called mothers and fathers and have them beaten in the same way, repeatedly, until they both are unconscious or dead. A lash for a lash, judge!

JAKE YABLONSKI.

SEES US SKIDDING

The social problem group, the unemployed and ne'er-do-wells, are beguiling a large percentage of our next generation—more than ever before, since previous generations were not coddled by government housing projects, unemployment compensation, baby bonuses, old-age pensions, relief, etc. The situation is all the more inelastic because it occurs so slowly. For this trend to show appreciably might take a century. When will we reverse this trend—or shall we retrograde to a nation of morons?

G. C. M.

THANKS FROM LIONS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the publicity and co-operation given by you during the past season, in reporting and publicizing the games played by the Morinville Lions' Juvenile Hockey team, which was successful in winning the Northern Alberta Juvenile "B" championship.

Your interest and assistance are very much appreciated.

A. REID, Secretary.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Associated Canadian Travellers have concluded another successful season of Search for Talent.

The ready response of Northern and Central Alberta weeklies to accepting and publishing news releases of the activities in connection with Search for Talent and the ACT Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund, has been a major factor in assuring the success of our public service in the interests of needy crippled children.

Consequently, more needy children will be healthier and happier due to your interest and co-operation.

T. A. SHANDRO,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Edmonton ACT.

Everybody wants short hours, high pay, quick promotions, easy work and holidays with pay. If you are looking for a job like that, remember that so is everybody else. If you find such a job, you'll be lucky. If you find two, let us know about the other one.

Teaching as a career gives one some degree of each of these desired job qualities. The actual working hours are short—not over 35 per week. Additional work is always self-controlled in the sense that you can work the assignments after 4 o'clock or after supper—you have a choice. The pay is not as high to start as is that of some other jobs, but it keeps rising with experience. For a young person, considering a life-work, that future look is often neglected and is very important. Your parents will tell you how short four or five years between the ages of 20 and 25 look from their present age. To the person of 19 it seems like all of time!

As anyone knows, pay and housing about a job. Do you like to be your own boss? From 9 o'clock until 4 every day, a classroom teacher. She decides what to do, how to do it and when to do it. There isn't everybody peering down her neck and saying "No, do this" or "Just stop that work you are doing and come over here." Besides being her own boss a teacher learns how to work with people, especially with children. The training teachers get is the best of training for motherhood. The harried parent who wonders what to do next often envies the teacher who can deal with 30 or 40 of these human dynamos. Any man is smart to choose a girl with such training for his wife.

So, why teach? Because you serve society as a teacher, because twenty years from now your influence on young lives will pay off, because it is work which requires initiative and intelligence. If you care only for a big starting pay cheque, with little future prospects, with risky and tenuous work, don't look at teaching as a job. But if you would like to improve yourself as a person as well as a possible parent, if you would like to leave your mark on the world, indelibly printed in the lives of young people, then choose teaching as a career.

Faculty of Education,

A Real Landlord

During the critical housing situation, all new tenants were required to undergo a minor third degree by the landlord. On one of these occasions, the apartment seeker suddenly realized that he in no way qualified for the vacancy.

"Do you have any children or pets?" asked the landlord.

"One girl and a small poodle,"
was the reply.

"Sing or play a musical instrument?"

"I play the piano," answered the crestfallen applicant.

"Drink or have parties?" he

"Once in a while," the applicant admitted.

"By George," replied the Landlord. "I believe you're just the man I'm looking for. This place has been like a graveyard lately!"

Perfection

A man who had been a bachelor most of his life finally married and settled down. One day he met a friend who had known him in the old days and the friend asked him what he thought of married life.

"Well," replied the benedict. "I married the girl of my dreams and she was worth waiting for.
She still is as beautiful to me as the day that I met her. Her hands around just as if you owned your cars."

mencing at 10 a.m.

BRETTON — Four FUA locals

MORINVILLE — Morinville and ments booth on grounds. Big dance at night in Morinville hall.

SPRUCE GROVE — Picnic, ball

hair is never untidy and her clothes are always in the very latest style."

"So you don't regret giving up your single life and getting married?" said the friend.

"No," was the reply, "but I can tell you one thing—I'm getting pretty tired of eating in restaurants."

Not Enough Evidence

The owner of a tavern was prosecuted for selling a bottle of whisky after the closing hour, a bottle similar to that sold was produced in the courtroom as evidence. After the jury had heard the evidence and had retired to deliberate the foreman returned to the courtroom.

"Your Honor," he said to the judge, "the jury are quite satisfied as to the sale of the bottle but they are not sure of its contents. May they have that bottle to satisfy themselves?"

"Certainly," declared the judge.

After a brief period the jury filed back into the box again.

"Well, gentlemen, have you reached a decision?" asked the judge.

"There's no case, Your Honor," replied the foreman. "There wasn't enough evidence to go around."

Safety First

"Some of you pedestrians walk
as if you owned the streets."

"Some of you motorists drive around just as if you owned your
cars."

were staying with me while their

the little girl running very fast.
Breathlessly, she said, "Oh,

went on, and he had caught a big

Legal News Briefs

Last Wednesday morning Rev. Father Labonte blessed in the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church the marriage of Jacques Vaugeois of this parish, and Germaine Gaulin of St. Albert.

Now that the spring seedling is over, a few families of the parish will take advantage of the nice weather of the summer season to visit their parents in Eastern Canada and the Coast. Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Regimbald, Mrs. Adelard Maurier, and Mr. Denis Daoust left by train last Wednesday evening, the 6th of June, for a trip east. Others will leave by train next Saturday afternoon, with a group of delegates organized for the 3rd Congress of the French Language, held in Quebec. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Montpetit, Mr. Ladis Messier, official delegate of the parish, Mr. and Mrs. Dominique Coulembe are to leave this week-end by car for a trip east. Also Mr. and Mrs. Henri Caouette left by car last Wednesday for a trip to Vancouver.

Here are the results of the baseball games played last week-end last Sunday: Monday, Alcomdale 6, Legal 8; Wednesday, Waugh 4, Legal 7; Sunday, June 8th, Picardville 13, Legal 6. Also after this local game the Legal team played two more games in the Waugh tournament, of which the results were the following: Thorhill 7, Legal 9; Waugh 7, Legal 9. Those two victories gave Legal the first prize of the tournament.

Origene Caouette, 17 years of age, who left school early this spring, is now the owner and operator of a jewellery shop. Also Mr. Amable Guellet, an experienced electrician, opened a shop last Saturday morning for electrical equipment at the residence of Leo Mercier.

A meeting of the ladies of the parish was held in the parish hall last Tuesday evening to organize the details of the meals that are to be served at the parochial picnic which is to be held on the 29th of June.

Alberta's Tree Planting Campaign

Interest in farmstead, roadside and field shelterbelt planting is increasing steadily, reports P. D. McCalla, supervisor of horticulture, Alberta department of agriculture. But there are still farmers who do not realize that tree seedlings for these plantings can be obtained on application to the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Some of these trees are made available through the co-operation of the Dominion Forest Nursery at Indian Head; others are grown at the Provincial Nursery Station at Oliver and the Provincial Horticultural Station at Brooks. With the increasing pressure of demand, it is becoming constantly necessary for orders to be placed well ahead.

Those desiring trees for planting next spring should be placing their orders now, says Mr. McCalla. While every effort is being made to fill all orders, the demand still exceeds the supply, and by ordering early disappointment may be prevented. One of the regulations governing distribution of these free trees is that the land in which they are to be planted must be summerfallowed during the year previous to planting. Better to order now and make sure you will have trees for that summerfallowed land than to leave it until fall and take a chance. Information and application forms are available from District Agriculturists throughout the province or from the Field Crops Branch, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Canada is first in the world as a fish exporting country.

He is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gibson of the Clyde district and when he was young he spent part of his summer holidays each year at his uncle's farm here. # LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

My husband is a salesman and is with people practically all day long, so that when he comes home
he is perfectly satisfied to eat
his dinner, listen to the radio,
read and go to bed.

I have plenty of time to read and listen to the radio during the day after I finish my household work, so I am ready in the evening to go to the movies or somewhere else.

Do you think it right for me to insist on his going out when I know he would rather stay home or should I put up with being bored to death half of the time?

Answer:

It seems to me that you and your husband could compromise on this problem. Why don't you go to the movies in the afternoon and join a club that meets during the day. Then tell your husband that if he will give you one or two evenings during the week, you will let him rest in peace for the remainder of the week. Plan these evenings, in advance, and for times you think he will enjoy them most.

There are a great many women who would be delighted to have a husband, who was satisfied to stay home with them every evening instead of hunting outside excitement and, as your husband is contacting people all day, one can understand how relieved he is to get away from them for a while. You might suggest to him, however, that social contacts are a help to most salesmen and this may influence him to be more so-

LOUISA.

Award New Contracts On $3,000,000 Outlay

New road contracts amounting to $3,000,000 have been awarded by the Alberta Highways department, forming part of its $17-500,000 main road construction program for this year.

Already work has started in various parts of the province as crews take advantage of weather conditions.

One of the largest contracts was for $67,109 for a stabilized gravel base course on a 31-mile stretch from Tees Corner to Stettler.

Estimated to cost $321,925, grading and other work will be done on a 16-mile strip from Delia to Hanna, in southern Alberta.

Grading and other work on 23 miles of the northern road between Dixonville and North Star at a cost of $276,815 also will be undertaken immediately.

The program also includes building of a stabilized gravel base roadway east of Beiseker to Drumheller, at an estimated cost of $979,651.

A contract for $475,662 on the construction of a 1,000-foot reinforced concrete girder bridge over the South Saskatchewan river at Medicine Hat also has been awarded.

Work also is being started on construction of gravel base and asphalt surface on 22 miles of road in the Lundbreck-Bellevue and Coleman-Crownst area.

The highways department also has awarded a contract for grading and other work from Bashaw to north of Ferintosh, 15 miles, at a cost of $165,041.

New Talent Star To Be Born At Devon Oil Show

DEVON—When an oil well is found in a new field, it is termed a strike or discovery. Now, the oil industry in Alberta, through the Devon Oil Show Association, is about to make a different kind of discovery. At the Oil Show being held in Devon July 3, 4 and 5, a new star in the entertainment world will be born. This will take place through the Talent Show to be held nightly with Stan Francis, of "Share the Wealth" fame as Master of Ceremonies.

The presentation, to be known as the "Fame and Fortune Show", will be held in Devon's Flare Pit, an amphitheatre under the stars, which seats 6,000 people.

Twenty-five contestants will compete in the three nights with the finalists from each night competing in the last half of the program Saturday for the grand award. The grand prize will be a week's all-expense trip for two to New York, with an opportunity to audition for some well-known radio show. Prizes will be given each night as well. Because of the nature of this contest, only single or diet acts which will have rustic appeal are acceptable, such as vocal, instrumental, impersonations, etc. As only 25 contestants can appear, the acts will have to be screened in advance by Stan Francis, who will be in Devon well in advance of the show dates. This is not the usual type of amateur or popularity contests; as only the very best talent that is possible to find will take part, and a panel of adjudicators will decide the winners. Talented persons wishing to appear should contact Mr. B. D. Stover, Secretary, Devon Oil Show Association, Devon, Alberta, immediately by phone, collect, or letter.

This, plus an audience participation feature, is the entertainment highlight of the Devon Oil Show. On display in the Oil exhibits will be machinery used in

You Having Cow Trouble?

URBANA, IL.—If you have a cow that's too short for milking by machine, just stand her on a plank. This suggestion comes from William Hopkins, He's Dairy Herd Improvement Association tester in McDonough County. He said that when a cow's udders hang low, it causes the suction hose to kink so that the milker won't work.

This disease of cattle is present in probably half the cattle herd in your Municipality. It causes great losses, as infected cows abort at 5 to 8 months. It is a germ disease and spreads from one cow to another.

CURE OR PREVENTION—

There is no cure, as a cow infected with Bang's disease causes abortion germs for the rest of her life. PREVENTION can be obtained only by vaccinating heifer calves at 4 to 9 MONTHS OF AGE.

They are immune for several years and by vaccinating heifer calves at 6 to 9 months gives best resistance a disease free herd can be built up within 5 to 6 years. In other words once started it must be continued.

UNDULANT FEVER IN MAN—

This dread disease of humans has occurred in the Edmonton district. It was traced back to drinking milk from cows infected with Bang's disease or handling infected animals.

CONTROL OF VACCINE—

Vaccine is supplied free by the Alberta Department of Agriculture. It is only allowed to be used by veterinarians.

Buyers are looking for cattle from Bang's free herds and also those vaccinated as calves.

For further particulars get a circular on "Bang's Disease" from the Municipal Office or from your District Agriculturist.

MUNICIPAL VACCINATION POLICY

The Morinville Agricultural Service Board has made arrangements with veterinarians to do calf vaccination on an hourly basis. The charges per calf will be $1.00 with a minimum charge of $2.00 per calf.

This is a plan whereby Bang's free herds can be built up, if vaccination is done twice a year.

Through organization and co-operation this service as outlined above can be rendered more cheaply than if done on an individual basis.
